Case No. 2:23-cv-00164-CR

ORDER GRANTING THE STATE OF VERMONT'S MOTION TO INTERVENE

The State of Vermont having moved for an order, pursuant to Rule 24(b), for leave to intervene in the above-captioned matter; and upon reviewing the memorandum of law accompanying such motion and any responses thereto; it is hereby

ORDERED, that the State of Vermont is granted leave to intervene for the limited purpose of moving to stay this action subject to the conditions that the State:

- (1) shall make no discovery demands, and shall not be required to respond to any discovery from the Parties (other than pursuant to a subpoena served on the State as a third party to this action);
- (2) shall seek no relief other than a stay or whatever other relief the Court deems appropriate to address the issues set forth in the State's proposed motion to stay; and
- (3) shall not be required at any time to submit a pleading setting forth any claim, and shall not be subjected to any claims by the current Parties.

SO ORDERED.

Dated at Burlington, in the District of Vermont, this 30th day of April 2024.
